Skin care products

Place your well-being in our hands and let your soul soar. Exclusive care products combined with select treatment methods make facial & body care a pure enjoyment.

Phytomer – unique cosmetics with active marine ingredients

Only sea water contains 104 trace elements essential for our well-being. These are especially important for radiantly beautiful skin and a firm, slim figure. Phytomer has therefore selected concentrates from sea water, marine spring water, algae, and sea mud as the main ingredients for the complete care product line in order to efficiently combat cosmetic problems.

PHYTOMER has been in the service of providing beauty for over 45 years: there is no need to create what nature has already created. Phytomer creates the beauty of the future.

Why you should choose Phytomer products

- Phytomer carefully and respectfully handles resources from the sea
- Phytomer is no. 1 throughout the world in the Thalasso sector
- Unique extraction technique, with which all active ingredients from the sea remain intact
- No animal testing or animal products
- 100 % natural marine and plant ingredients
- In-vitro test on cell cultures
- Dermatologically tested care products (safe and effective)

STYX – natural cosmetics with the power of nature

Health & healing

NATURAL FANGO

Warm, moist volcanic mud that relaxes muscles and tendons.
Especially recommended for back and joint pain.

NATURAL FANGO - warm (partial-body)	29,- Euro
NATURAL FANGO - warm (full-body)	35,- Euro
NATURAL FANGO - cold (partial-body)	29,- Euro

Excellently suited for inflammation or bruising on the knees or shoulders

EAR CANDLING TREATMENT	ca. 25 min	33,- Euro
------------------------	------------	-----------

As the candles, which are made out of beeswax, slowly burn, a negative pressure is created in the ear, which allows for pressure regulation and a feeling of release in the head, sinuses, and ear area.
The pleasant warmth from the burning of the candle stimulates circulation and lymph flow.

ENERGY THERMAL BATH (RADON)	ca. 20 min	26,- Euro
-----------------------------	------------	-----------

The noble gas radon, which is contained in thermal water, is emitted from water and is absorbed into the body through the respiratory passages and the skin. Here it unfolds its healing effects before it completely breaks down after ca. 3 hours. The body's immune system is stimulated and the natural warmth promotes circulation and treats pain of the musculoskeletal system as well as the skin and respiratory passages.

(1st bath = introductory session, after that only with a physician's prescription)
